GMB NHS & AMBULANCE - STRIKE ACTION

Dear GMB Member

It's fair to say the NHS today saw the biggest NHS protest in 66 years and the first walkout by many in 32 years. Thank you for making today's four hour strike a success. GMB members voted to take strike and action short of strike to defend their pay, terms and conditions.

I know many of our NHS members took part in strike action for the first time and many of our GMB NHS members have shared their experiences of what has motivated them to take strike action. We know some employers brought in the Military and Police to undermine today's strike action. Matters the GMB is taking very seriously.

Secretary of State for Health, Jeremy Hunt responded to the strike action by saying, a pay uplift would mean jobs cuts. He also said incremental pay progression offers some NHS staff a 3% pay rise. Both issues have been challenged by the GMB, as we don't accept this analysis.

Nationally we have had reports of solid strike action across the country, with picket lines gaining numbers as the four hours progressed. Please pass my solidarity wishes to all GMB NHS members and please pass on my thanks to everyone who has made the four hour strike a success today.

We now move into Action Short of Strike for the next four days. Details of the action short of strike has been issued. If you are unsure of anything please contact your local GMB rep or email nhs@gmb.org.uk Please ensure the next four days is as successful as the four hours of strike taken place today.

Many GMB NHS members took strike action today with a heavy heart. NHS Staff just want to get on with caring for patients. It is sad we have a Government who is not prepared to acknowledge the tremendous public service provided by NHS Staff.

Please note the GMB NHS/Ambulance senior reps will meet after this week to discuss the full impact of the strike and action short of a strike. Further plans will be discussed for future strike action and action short of a strike. GMB members will be kept updated.

Our strength is our numbers; please ensure all your colleagues on NHS wards, depts, ambulance stations, community centres are in a union. If not please pass them a GMB joining form attached to this newsletter today.

In Solidarity

Rehana Azam GMB NHS National Officer
